What Jiggy

Well, I guess this is just about it this year. A few more months & we're out, for good.
Some of us will be going onto school others getting jobs & getting married. So I guess after this year we won't be seeing a lot of the kids for some time.
But it has been a pleasure knowing you for the past four years and I'm wishing you
lots of luck in the future, no matter what you do.

*Sue,
Well, I see
you are a big senior already. Just think after this year you will be out of school. And then you will have to get a job, and then Always remember all the crazy times we've had this summer. Really, it was about a blast.
Best of luck to a real sharp senior. Always keep your sweet personality and cute smile.*

KANSAS CENTENNIAL

1861-1961

On January 29, 1861, President James Buchanan signed the bill which admitted Kansas to the Union of States. There had been border violence, and Indian warfare; frontier towns such as Dodge City and Abilene were boisterous gathering places for the cattlemen; yet to come was the Civil War and its aftermath, before the state could really begin to develop and prosper.

Today we see Kansas as a highly diversified state, with both agriculture and industry playing major roles in the state's economy. Oil wells, wheat harvests, aircraft industries, cattle herds, the Flint Hills, superhighways, man-made lakes and recreation areas, and grain elevators are components of the modern Kansas scene.

As Kansans, we move into our second century with pride and anticipation.

This is the Kansas Centennial year. In keeping with this historic celebration of 100 years of Kansas statehood and progress, we of the Seaman Yearbook Staff feel it appropriate to recognize the parallel advancement and development of education in our state and in our school.

Seaman Rural High School records its forty-first year of progress in 1961. As we enter our fifth decade, we can proudly observe in retrospect our growth in enrollment, in curriculum offerings, in teaching staff and professional preparation, in new educational methods and techniques, and in school building accommodations and facilities.

Much of value has been done in education in the past 100 years in Kansas and in the past 41 years at Seaman; much of importance remains to be done, as we look forward to the challenging years ahead.

Sue —
Seniors we are - victors, at last!
It's wonderful to see someone enjoy life as you do, and I hope that you'll live life as gay as the lives of people with whom you came in contact.
May the best of life be yours —
Good Luck, now and always.

DEDICATION

MRS. HAZEL P. GOOCH

The Yearbook Staff is honored to dedicate this 1961 edition of THE SEAMAN to Mrs. Hazel P. Gooch, who retires this year. We hope that this dedication helps to express our appreciation to a superior teacher and advisor.

Mrs. Gooch taught at Seaman from 1926 to 1930, and from 1944 to 1961. During these years, she has worked primarily in the field of English, although she has also taught Latin and bookkeeping. Many students past and present, will remember her also as Junior Class sponsor, very ably supervising such activities as the Prom, the Commencement Daisy Chain, and the concession stand at football games.

Speaking for all her students and associates, we wish her good health, happiness, and enjoyment in her travels.

From a welter of poster paper and paint brushes, paste jars and charcoal, showcard paint and watercolors, the Art Club furnishes many worthwhile services to Seaman and the community. Composed of students who have had one year of art and present art pupils, this group, sponsored by Miss Dora Wilson, had among its projects this year the decorations for Seaman's Winter Serenade Dance, safety posters, and posters advertising various school functions.

KANSAS CENTENNIAL EDITION

SPORTS

As Kansas settlers took time from their daily tasks to participate in community get-togethers and social gatherings, so Seaman students find relaxation and a change-of-pace from their school work by taking part in athletic events.

THE ATHLETIC BOARD

Most Vikings know little of the functions of our Athletic Board. Some of the duties of its officers are selling tickets at the games, handling all athletic receipts and expenditures, and keeping a record of Seaman's athletic activities. This board consists of four officers: president, secretary, treasurer, and assistant treasurer. The officers this year were President J. R. Brady, Secretary Connie Kingsley, Treasurer Mary Jean Cropp, and Assistant Treasurer Sharon Miller. They are advised by Principal Frank Colaw and Coaches Carl Bierman and David Shirk.

HOMECOMING KING AND QUEEN

ROXANNA AND J.R.

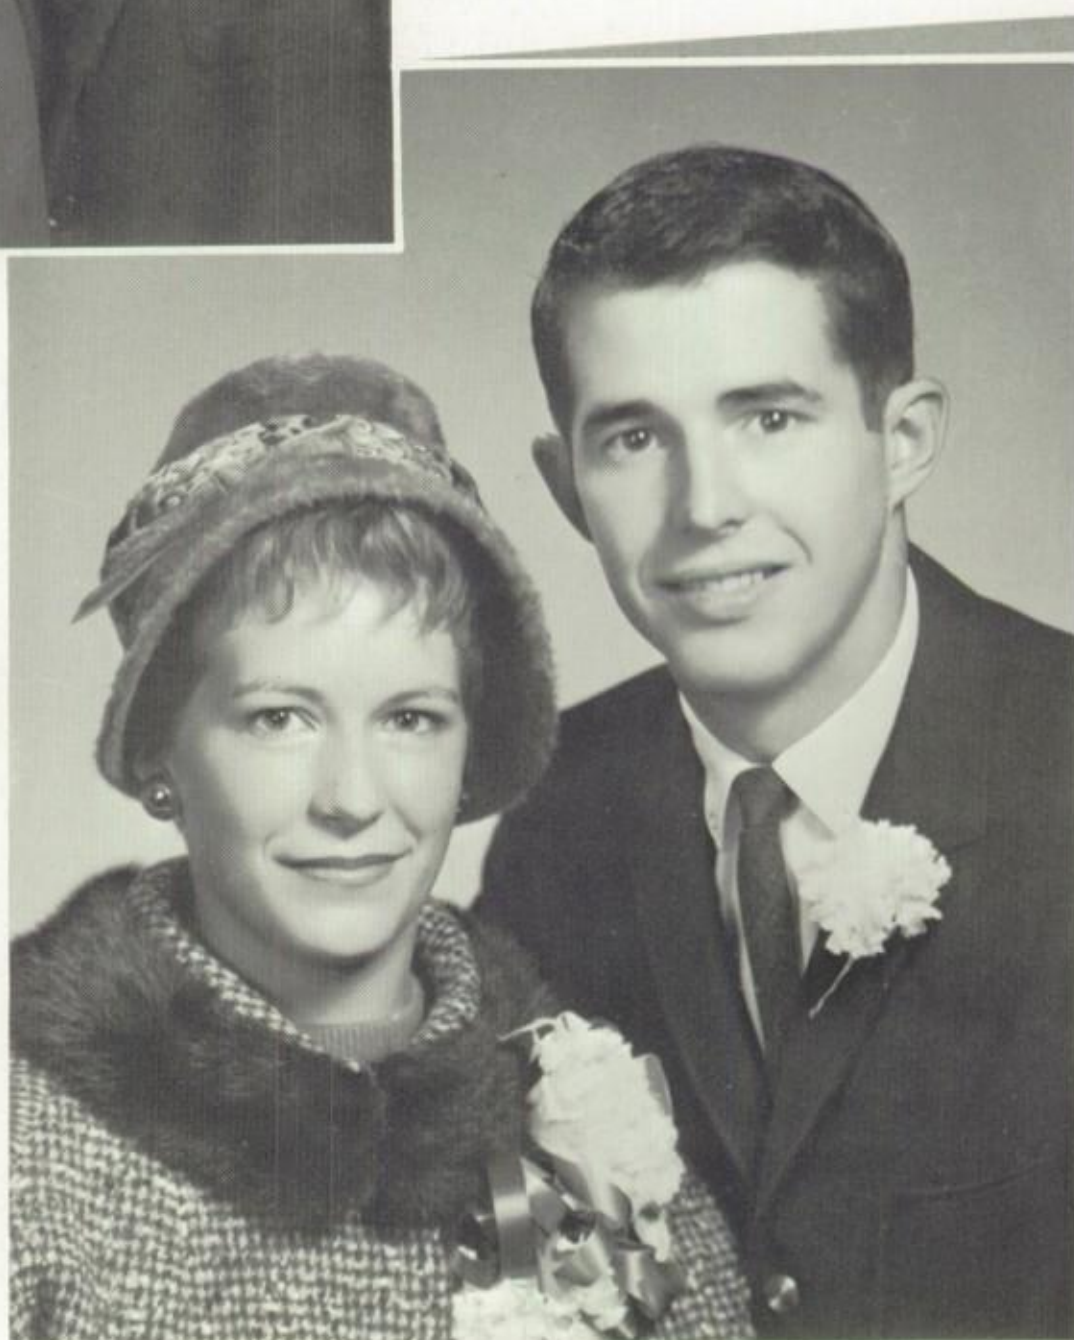

On October 21, a crisp clear evening, Seaman held its 1961 Homecoming ceremony. Since the weather was pleasant, the half-time proceedings were held on the football field, complete with the red-and-blue Pep Club heart and a blue Band arrow. Cheerleader Roxanna Tenpenny, the lovely queen, was crowned by King J. R. Brady. Susan Prosser and Kay Towslee were the gracious attendants escorted by Gary Taylor and Gary Lindsey, respectively. To make the evening a complete success, the Vikes won their game with a triumphant 32 to 12 over Osage City.

Coach "Bernie" Bierman explains a play.

Another year—another Jayhawk League Championship. This seems to be a developing tradition with the Seaman High football teams and Coach "Bernie" Bierman. Since "Bernie" became head football coach in 1954, Seaman has won three league championships and has twice tied for first place. Coach Bierman praises our outstanding school spirit and the great eagerness of the boys to win.

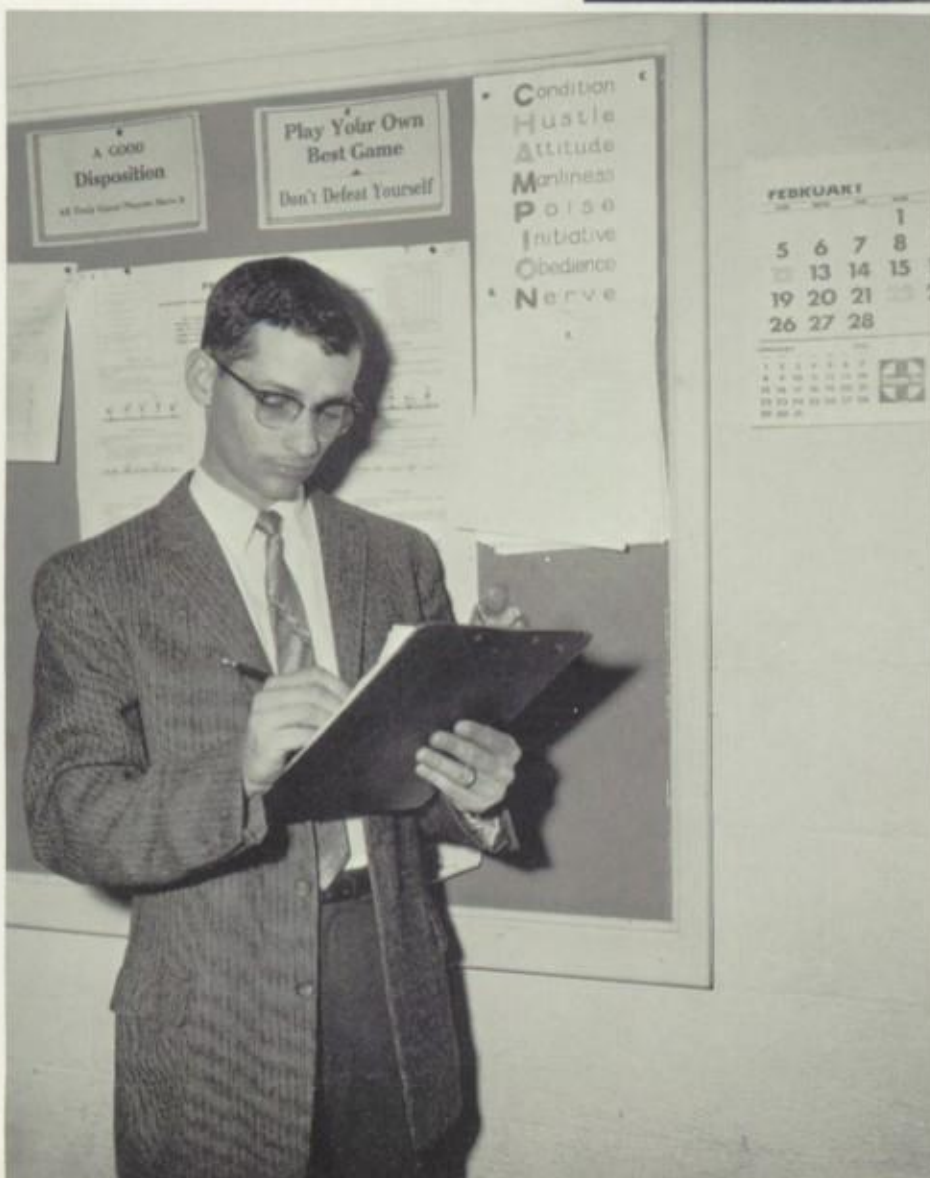

"We want every boy out for football who has the desire to play the game and will obey training and squad rules," states Coach Bierman.

Bernie and his Co-Captains, Keith Whiteman and Larry Broadbent.

Lindsey picks up some more yardage.

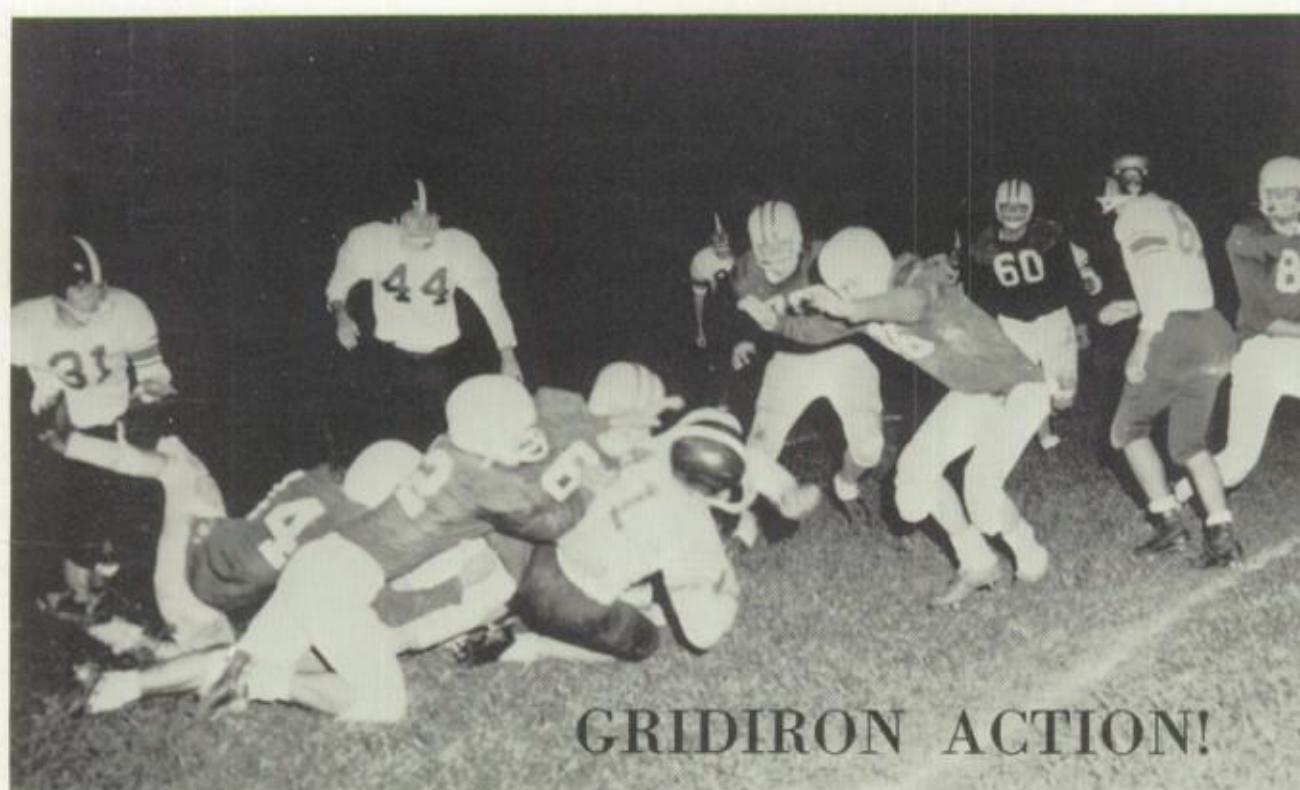

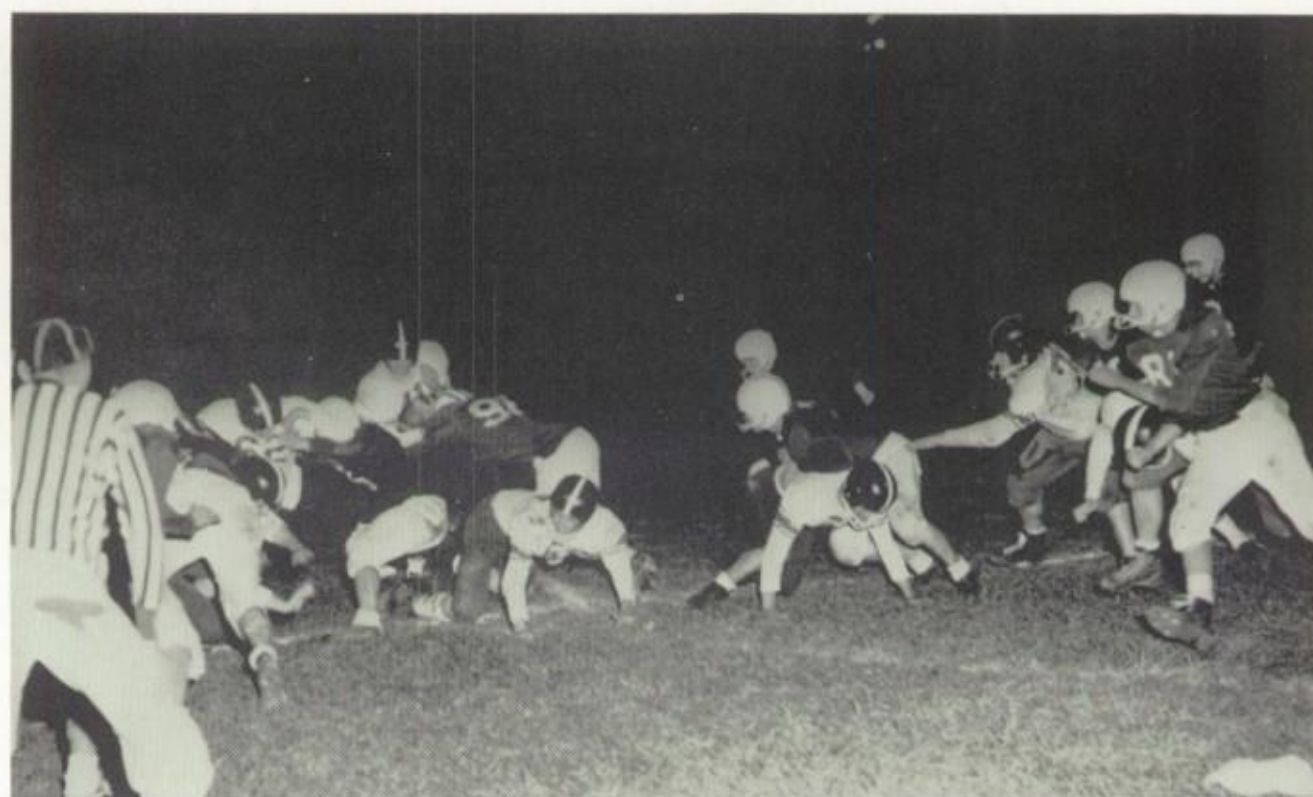

Dick Lauffer is Freshman Coach for football, basketball, and track. The freshman squads receive valuable training in preparation for future varsity participation.

Coach Dave Shirk

This year's basketball squad emerged as the surprise team of the year, finishing third in Jayhawk League competition, after a pre-season prediction to finish in last place. With a season record of 12 wins and 11 losses, the team also placed second in the District Tournament, the Regional Tournament, and the Centre Tournament. Coach Shirk gives credit to the 1961 squad for their hustle, team work, and great desire to win.

VIEWING OUR FOUR YEARS

In the fall of 1958, 132 freshmen ventured into the halls of Seaman to begin their four-year program of work and play. Though their surroundings seemed strange, they were welcomed warmly by new friends. A good beginning on our job resulted in new interests and new activities. Freshman leaders were President Larry Broadbent, Vice-President Kay Towslee, Secretary J. R. Brady, and Treasurer Anita Mitchell. Mr. Richard Lauffer and Miss Marvel Cox helped us in our efforts. A "Freshman Get-Acquainted Party" accented the social functions of the year. We took time out for a picnic at Gage Park at the end of our first year at Seaman.

We began our second year of toil and fun with 120 friends, led by Jim Watkins, president; Joe Maxwell, vice-president; Gary Taylor, secretary; and Anita Mitchell, treasurer. We were directed by Mr. Carl Bierman and Mr. Lawrence Freel as sponsors. At the end of the second semester, Gage Park headlined another year of learning and frolic.

Stepping in as 118 upper-classmen, we began our junior year. We were headed by President Gary Taylor, Vice-President J. R. Brady, Secretary Susan Prosser, and Treasurer Jim Watkins, with Mr. Jack Kugler, Mrs. Hazel Gooch, and Mr. Richard Johnson conducting us through another successful year. With much anticipation, interests were turned to the selecting of class rings. The Junior-Senior Dinner Dance was emphasized as the biggest event of the year.

Finally, reaching the high-point of all four years—we walked proudly through the halls with our senior classmates. The arrival of rings, Sneak Day, and Commencement filled the busy senior list of activities. Officers, who were Dick Hubbell, president; Roxanna Tenpenny, vice-president; Mary Lou Hermann, secretary; and David McDougal, treasurer, helped their classmates to make even more important decisions, with the assistance of Mrs. Margaret Epps, Mr. Harold Nachtigall, and Mr. David Shirk. But we all knew that soon this was to end. On graduation night, May 26, 1961, 102 seniors realized only too soon how short the past four years had been. Now we were on our own, seeking our own fortunes, with the memory of Seaman behind us, with parting friendships, and with golden memories.

"If we do meet again, we'll smile indeed;
If not, 'tis true this parting was well made."

-Shakespeare, Julius Caesar

Sound Advice On Buying
Your Jewelry

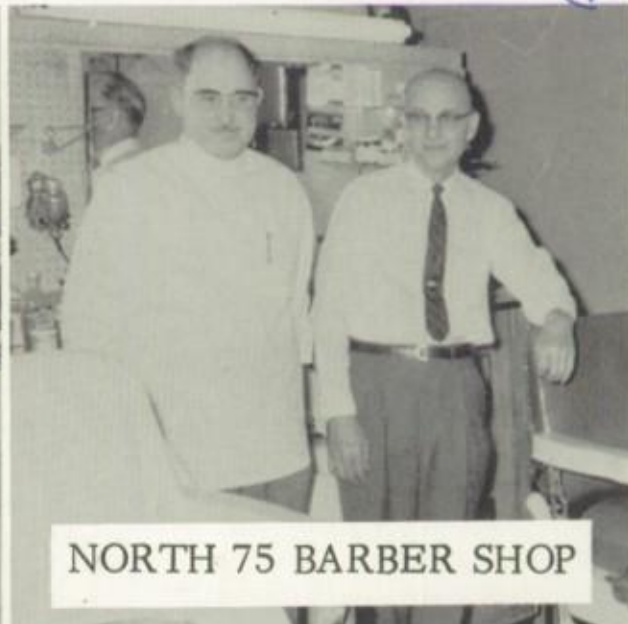

Sue, Seniors? I can't really believe it. We sure have had a lot of fun ^{1250 ON YOUR DIAL} around together all these years. I sure have enjoyed being one of your friends and I hope you and Dean continued being best of friends. We have had our fights but they do seem to be over. I wish you and Larry the best wishes and I hope later on maybe you will be together for ever. Remember all the things we have done which we weren't supposed to do. As I remember back we have had a lot of fun together. I will always remember my sweet, cute "little" carrot top. Love ya.

Well, we finally made it, didn't
we? — up and coming Seniors.
With all these boys in the study hall, we'd have to be a good influence and show them how crazy seniors are.
suppose to act.

This is only my second time
in here and it reminds me of how silly we acted then. (Freshmen)

See, I'm looking forward to

Well, here we be: big, 'bad' seniors? Aww? Gosh?

don't know ~~that~~ if
it make much difference if you are a
senior or a freshman
this year - then doesn't seem to be much distinction in either, O - well.

That's life. I hope

you ~~grab~~ take

Sue,
I wish you can always
be as fun-loving and sweet
as you are, you are always so nice and cheerful, keep your sweet self. Love from

Our senior year is here and it is going to be wild! You have already been a big help to me
this year with pins and I really want to you to know that I really appreciated it.
Although we didn't get to initiate the Freshman girls
we had fun trying. Maybe we will get the job done yet.
I have begun to know you
a lot better this past year and I know with you in our class we will have a ball.

Lots of Luck
